

COUNCIL ON AGING MEETING

June 16, 2009

In attendance: Virginia Schneider, John Shay, Al Ouimet, Pat Clark, Karen Leger, Rita Vail, Becky Moriarty, Deanna Vermette

Absent: Shirley Gouvan, Kathy Foster, Brian MacLeod

Pat Clark called the meeting to order at 8:30 AM.

On July 1st the new by-laws will take effect and there will be the potential to add members to the COA board, 2 over 60 years of age and 1 under 60. Presently we have 5 over 60 and 3 under 60.

Ray Crowley: said he sees what others in the community contribute and he is aiming to do likewise. He presently volunteers and would like to do more. Sees the Center as extremely well run. Would like more funding for the purpose of more hours open. Said you don't have to be retired to participate here.

Aline Burt: Presently volunteers for the SCRIBE, in the kitchen as needed and in the office. Participates in pitch, trivia, bingo and other activities. Sees the COA board as the overseer to run everything at the Senior Center.

After discussion on all of the applicants for the COA board, Pat Clark called for a vote by secret ballot. All candidates were listed. The outcome was that the two top vote getters were Ray Crowley and Andree Crowley. These two names will be taken to the Selectmen as recommendations for the COA board. Becky will make an appointment with the Selectmen for a date as soon as possible and will notify each board member of the date and time.

Meeting adjourned at 9:10 AM.

Respectfully submitted for the Secretary,

Rita Vail
