CONSERVATION COMMISSION MEETING

June 15, 2016

- Present: Judy McKinley Brewer, Ted Zebert, Andrew Netherwood, Bonnie Geromini, Phil Grant.
- 7:00 Bonnie Geromini opened up the meeting at 7:00. Mr. Roulier from Dan Roulier & Associates left a blueprint for the commission to look at. He wants to build a 20 x 30 ft. shed on Lovers Lane on the MA-Ct line A letter was sent to Mr. Roulier to attend the meeting but he did not come.
- 7:10 Mr. Dorn put in a complaint to the Selectman's office on logging being done on the river on River Park Dr. One of the committee members went down but there are logs at the end of the road. Pictures were taken to put in the file.
- 7:15 Carmine Angelina came in to discuss the Conservation land that is being farmed on Sessions Dr.-Oakland area. This is already Conservation land and was originally bought for Forest Management. There is about 100 acres and 65 acres will be harvested. It was suggested that some sort of a safety sign near Baldwin Drive be put up saying that Logging Trucks may be entering for safety sake.
- 7:40 Gary Weiner, John Flynn, Mark Langone Hwy Supervisor explained about the new storm water system on Bennett Road. They explained after the system is put in three trees will be planted around the system. Judy McKinley Brewer made the motion to approve the storm water system to be put in and Phil Grant 2nd the motion.

- 8:00 Mr. Burns from 22 South Rd. came in to talk about the cleanup he is doing on his property. He is taking out the deadwood and cutting prickles and cutting evasive plants. A site visit will be done on July 6, 2016 to view the area in question.
- 8:15 Mr. Dangelo came in to talk about the cleanup that Mr. Burns is doing. The Committee told him what he was doing and that we would keep a check on it.
- 8:25 There was a complaint about the large pile of brush accumulating on the Wiley's property at 570 Main St. The Commission will do a site visit on July 6, 2016 to check out the situation.
- 8:30 Phil Grant made the motion to close the June 15th meeting Ted Zebert 2nd the meeting. All were in favor.
