Members Absent:

Also Present: John Gurski, Heather Jolicoeur

Bills: reviewed and signed

Mail: -none-

Agenda Items:

Minutes: In separate motions Dave P motioned to approve the January 20th as presented and February 9th as amended meeting minutes. Dave T seconded, 4-0 in favor

Yoga:

Lisa would like to run another free session on March 9 followed by an eight week session for &70 first person $50 each additional family member. Fee will be the same as previous program: If less than six registrations, all monies would go to instructor, if more than six registrations received, the rest of the monies collected will go to Parks. Admin will have numbers from the first session for next meeting.

Baseball:

John informed the commissioners that the fee for Tritown referees/umpires has risen to $55 each with two per game for a total cost increase of $10 per game. He is working on quotes for shirts/hats for the program. A hardship request was received and presented to the commissioners by the Admin for approval by the commissioners and reimbursement by RAH according to their bylaws. Dave T will ask RAH for funding. If RAH declines then the Parks commissioner will decide. John will get in touch with Scott Slattery regarding field usage.

Basketball:

Heather has requested that our teams not play in playoff games at St Thomas due to the issues that we have been having with referees. Next year we will not play games there but will request that they be scheduled in our gym. Admin has volunteered to help with CYO scheduling next year. Playoffs will be held from February 27th through March 14th.

Soccer:

Terry meeting next week with Kristina
Field needs to be reseeded. Commissioners will decide where to move nets to.
Admin will bill Ciro for spring field usage.
